Thanks George, :)

It means a lot to me. I basically work hard for me, not to meet the approval of others. Life's too short.

It's always nice talking to you.

Have a good night (drive safely).

Annie

Annie,

I believe you are the hardest working drug chemist I have worked with. I'm sure everyone else works hard too, and I know it's a tough job given the resources the state doesn't give us, so I believe that all of you do a great job, and it is very appreciated by a lot of us, including me.

I know from experience in dealing with you, how hard you work, believe me, its noticed.

Keep up the good work.

It was nice talking to you.

Thx. But Debi did all the work and she deserves all the credit.

It was a pleasure to finally met the infamous Debi Payton. I have numerous cases with her and plus she has my 5 lb discovery packet. She calls herself "chemist's Annie hog."

I had a case in Dec with Debi and her Mom was in the hospital at the time. Unfortunately, that case got continued and it turned out to be the week of her Mom's funeral. I can only imagine the tremendous ordeal she had to deal with. My heart when out to her and her family.

As for me, things could be little bit better. B/t u and me: some of the senior chemists are becoming full of themselves and using my name & reputation for their own advancement. But that's a story for another time.

PS: Thx...I needed the compliment.

Annie

Hey congratulations on your trial with Debbie Payton! She was raving about how great you were!
That's great!

She is one of the best ADA's in the office, and she's so dedicated. She had a recent loss in her family, and she decided to keep going with her work.

Good job Annie!

Hope all is well.

I am having a hard time forwarding the questions partly b/c of the remote access to my work computer. Thought I had a copy of those questions at home. I will send it to you in the AM.

Have a good night and go to bed.

PS: You went from calling me Kiddo to Boss. :P You know I enjoy giving you a hard time, right!!

Hey boss,

I was wondering if you could help my buddy below, ADA Bosse, on predicate questions with substitute chemist, if you have such? I know I have the ones you already sent me before, but I wasn't sure if you had a set for these.

Thank you Annie!!!!!!

Subject: Substitute Drug Chemist Questions

Hi,

Wondering if any of you have tried a case with a substitute drug chemist? If so, would you mind sending me the predicate questions, if you still have them saved? Hope all is well with all of you and good to see the Red Sox are starting to turn things around!!!!
